

ATTENTION APPLICANTS

Effective June 1, 2007, the Board of Psychology will no longer be contracting with Thomson Prometric to administer the required written licensing examinations. Beginning June 1, 2007 a new contractor, Psychological Services (PSI) will administer the written examinations.

Candidates with an open eligibility may contact Thomson Prometric to schedule an examination if the examination occurs no later than May 31, 2007.

All new candidates and existing candidates with an open eligibility who have not examined with Thomson Prometric by May 31, 2007 will be required to schedule an examination with PSI. These candidates will receive a new candidate handbook that will contain a toll-free number for scheduling, as well as addresses and maps and/or directions to the PSI test sites.
